

Sweet Socials at Liliha Bakery

L to R: Bill, Max, Benton, Nick, Brent, Stan, Kyle, and Joy.
[Warren via Zoom]

Our first hybrid (Zoom + In Person) club meeting was held on Sept. 27 at Liliha Bakery. We met online via Zoom first, then drove to Ala Moana. Bill brought his laptop and we linked up with Warren after everyone arrived. It was the first time we met again for a quarterly social. Naturally, conversation flowed much more smoothly since we weren't limited by Zoom glitches or audio limitations.

Meeting at a coffee shop has worked well for our club and it's not just the cocoa puffs that are delightful. Please join us on March 21 for our next quarterly gathering at the Liliha Bakery (located in Macy's) after the meeting. Be ready for a Table Topic at our table!

Got ideas? Hey! If you've got ideas for stories in our next quarterly newsletter on March 31, please send information to Joy by March 24. Mahalo!

Yet Another Big Bang of a Banquet!

Yup. Bill pulled off yet another hugely successful Christmas banquet on Dec. 13. Tempting delicacies kept coming and coming and coming. This was accompanied by a special round of Table Topics, lucky number drawings, and singing of carols. What a great evening of fun, fellowship, and fattening delights!
